 General Secretary

3. In view of the above we propose that verification shall be shifted to 1st week of June 2016.

Further, FNTO request you to extend the following facilities to the applicant unions.

1. All unions securing more than 5% of the vote casted national level shall be given Council seats in all levels of the councils.
2. The leaders of unions with limited trade union facilities shall be given protection of immunity from transfer.
3. The unions with limited trade union facilities shall be given special Casual Leave for Working committee meetings and Conferences.
4. The Office accommodation allotted to the unions prior to the first verification shall be continued to use it as per the standing commitment given by the BSNL Management to the unions.
5. The clause of permitting single union system in BSNL on securing 51% of the total votes shall be abolished as it is against the democratic values of our country.
6. All applicant unions shall be given minimum trade union facilities.

Further, we request you to kindly convene a meeting of all applicant unions for discussing and taking apt decisions on the various points raised by them. More points in support of these demands shall be provided in the next meeting.

Yours faithfully,

(K. Jayaprakash)
