

The BSNL had subsequently found out that 12 questions in the question paper of the same were wrong/mistaken, and have granted marks towards the same to declare candidates as having passed the LICE (except incumbents who cases are pending) But again, while many of their equally placed (but for not opting the NEPP) colleagues who have cleared the LICE have now being selected to be sent for training.

So it is requested that the post based promotions granted to the officials from 01-10-2000 to 01-10-2004 should not be counted for promotion under NEPP. It is also further requested that urgent steps may initiated to include the candidates who appeared in the LICE provisionally along with the final list of candidates after granting to all concerned (including those parties to the proceeding who stand passed in the LICE), marks granted by the BSNL towards wrong/mistaken/out of syllabus questions.

With regards

Yours Sincerely

(K. Jayaprakash)
